Entry into Year 6

English test

In addition to the accuracy tests (grammar, spelling and punctuation) and reading comprehension test, candidates will also be required to produce a piece of free writing, an example of the type of task being given below. Marks will be awarded for how imaginative and interesting the piece is, how well it is structured into paragraphs, the variety and control of sentences, and the richness and appropriateness of vocabulary used.

Example

Imagine that you have arrived at the house where you are staying on holiday. When you go exploring, you find a door, and when you open it you cannot believe your eyes! Describe as carefully and closely as you can, exactly what you see.
